Section 3 Removal and Resignation

Any elected officer may be removed from office for cause by a three-fourths majority vote of the Directors at the time in office, at a regular or special meeting of the Directors. However, no officer may be removed from office without a recommendation or charges for removal first being presented to the Directors for evaluation as to whether the charges have merit. Any member in good standing of the Club may file charges against an officer. The officer in question will receive written notification from the Directors of the charges and a separate notification of the Board's findings. The officer in question, upon receiving notification will be relieved of all Board/Officer duties until the Directors take a final vote. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Directors or to the President or Secretary of the Club. Any such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein. The acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 4 Vacancies

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or any other cause shall be filled by a special election at the next scheduled Club meeting. The Directors may call a special meeting to hold the election prior to the next scheduled Club meeting.

Section 5 Age

No member of the Club may serve as an Officer unless they have reached their eighteenth (18th) birthday prior to the beginning of their term. Furthermore, all Officers must be in good standing with the Club.

ARTICLE VI – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 Board of Directors

The Board of Directors consists of not less than five (5) members-in-good-standing. The President shall also serve as Chairman of the Board of Directors. The remaining four (4) members of the Board shall be elected by the membership. Each will serve for a period of two years; however terms will overlap so that only two directors will be replaced each year. A Director shall serve as Chairperson of each standing committee and all other committees that may be established from time to time. The Board of Directors will meet as needed at a time and place of their choosing.

A quorum of the Board of Directors shall consist of no less than four (4) Board of Director members with one being the Chairman. The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall provide a detailed report, either in writing or in person, on the previous Board of Director meeting(s), at the next Monthly Business Meeting

Section 2 Duties of Directors

The Board of Directors shall conduct club elections as set forth in Article XIV.

If notified that the President, Vice President, and Secretary are unable to attend the same Monthly Business Meeting, it is the responsibility of the Board of Directors to cancel said meeting and notify the general membership by telephone and/or email. In the event of the cancellation of a Monthly Business Meeting, for whatever reason, the Board of Directors may attempt to reschedule the meeting

Section 3 Removal and Resignation

Any elected director may be removed from office for cause by a three-fourths majority vote of the Directors at the time in office, at a regular or special meeting of the Directors. However, no director may be removed from office without a recommendation or charges for removal first being presented to the Directors for evaluation as to whether the charges have merit. Any member in good standing of the Club may file charges against a director. The director in question will receive written notification from the Directors of the charges and a separate notification of the Board's findings. The director in question, upon receiving notification will be relieved of all Board duties until the Directors take a final vote. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the President or Secretary of the Club. Any such resignation shall take effect on the date of receipt of such notice or at a later time specified therein. The acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 4 Vacancies

A vacancy shall be deemed to exist in the case of death, resignation or a removal of any director or if the authorized number of Directors are increased by amendment of these By-Laws. A vacancy or vacancies shall be filled by the remaining Directors until a successor can be elected at either the next membership meeting or by a special election.
